

The Silk that Splits was not MONEYBAK!

"Moneybak" silk means satisfaction or your money back. When made up it will not crack or split at seams. Pull it zigzag, crosswise, cornerwise or any other way and it springs back into shape because it is all silk, lots of it and pure dye.

New lot just received.

SOCIETY

Depending on the time of the arrival of the army transports Logan from San Francisco and the Thomas from Manila, Manager H. W. Lake will give a dance in honor of the transport people. Should a transport be here on Monday, and the vessel stay over night, a dance will be given in the evening. Should either or both transports arrive on Tuesday and remain over night, a dance will be given then. At any rate, Manager Lake intends to continue his long-established custom of royally entertaining the officers and ladies in the army service in the name of the Young Hotel.

Madame Belle Cole, the well known singer who gave a concert here a few years ago is reported dying in London, Eng.

A reception for Hawaiians only will be held on Monday afternoon from 3 to 5 by Mrs. J. M. Dowsett, wife of Senator Dowsett, at their Punahou street home.

The guests at the Alexander Young Hotel amused themselves on Friday evening at a pedro party given in the lounge room. Following the games Mr. Lake furnished a treat in the way of a Dutch supper, comprising pretzels, sauerkraut, frankfurters, rye bread and steins of beer. The prizes were won by Mrs. High, Mr. Berry and Mr. Lake, the latter taking the consolation prize on a cut for the same.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewers gave a dinner party on Thursday evening which was a very enjoyable affair. A beautiful basket of white roses and maidenhair ferns occupied the center of the table. Green shaded candelabra cast a soft glow upon the scene. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Will Lewis, Dr. and Mrs. High, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Dougherty, Mr. and Mrs. Wall.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. C. Montague Cooke Jr., at their residence, College Hills, on Friday, March 3.

Mr. G. Kunst of Apia, Samoa, arrived on the Sierra during the week and is occupying his Walkiki home for a couple of months. He will then proceed to Germany for a long visit.

The concert given on Tuesday evening at the Opera House for the benefit of the organ fund of St. Andrew's Cathedral was one of the most fashionably attended musical affairs given here in recent months. The auditorium and galleries were filled. The program comprising Brahms' masterpiece "The Song of Fate," was ably conducted by Gerard Barton, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Barton. The rendition of the piece was excellent and called for hearty applause. The remainder of the program was devoted to soloists. Mrs. Mackall of Kahuku, made a most pleasing impression. She possesses a beautiful, clear, soprano voice of exceeding sweetness and culture. Hon. Paul Isenberg sustained his old-time reputation and Mrs. Ingalls, the violinist, gave a meritorious exhibition of her talent. The loges were occupied by Helen Noonan and guests, who were Mr. and Mrs. Percy Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Wilder, Misses Jennie Giffard, Nellie Kitchen, Marion Scott, Messrs. Frank Armstrong, Hugh Walker and Will Roth.

Mr. and Mrs. Brainober were the guests of honor at a pretty fish luncheon at the Alexander Young Hotel on Monday, given by Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Moore. The guests were Mrs. Dreischmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. M. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Lake, Mr. Graham.

Mrs. Walbridge entertained at dinner on Friday evening for Mr. and Mrs. David Rice.

Mrs. Jordan entertained a number of guests at a tea on Monday afternoon, among them being Mrs. Henry W. Lyon, Mrs. J. M. Dowsett, Mrs. Chas. B. Cooper, Mrs. Ballentyne, Mrs. L.

Captain and Mrs. Niblack, Mr. and Mrs. Rice and Dr. Yost, U. S. A., were the dinner guests last evening of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hatch.

Dr. F. Howard Humphris, who met with an accident on Wednesday while being driven in Mr. Deering's automobile, is convalescing. His wounds were deep and painful, one arm having two long gashes. He may be able to attend to his duties the early part of this week.

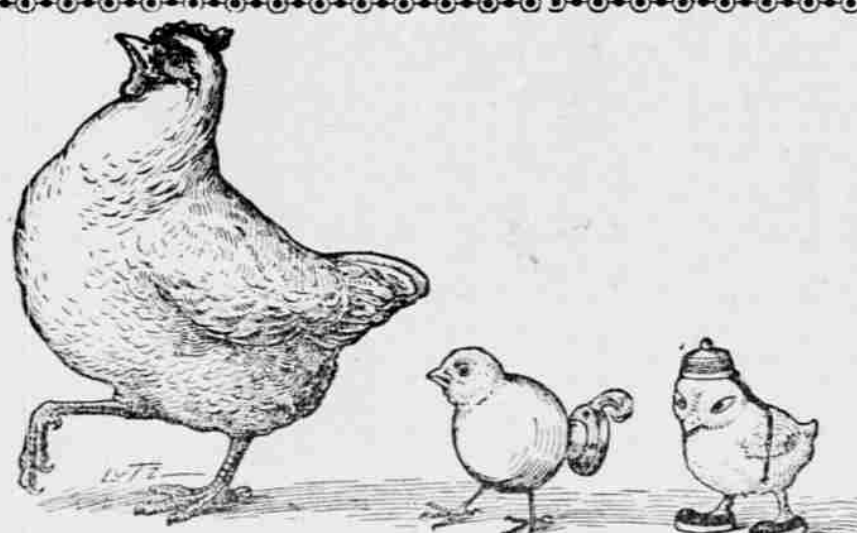

Miss Ena and Miss Levy have returned to Honolulu from an extended visit on Kauai.

Captain and Mrs. Goodwin departed on Thursday for Delaware Breakwater in the ship Dirigo of which Captain Goodwin is master. Honolulu found the Dirigo a most hospitable ship, the cabins and parlor being fitted up sumptuously for a merchant vessel, and well adapted for entertaining.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendroth who have been visiting the Isenbergs, departed for Bremen on the Mongolla last Sunday.

Mrs. Percy Benson who leaves for an extended trip to the mainland on April 14, will be accompanied by Mrs. Helen Noonan.

At a dinner party on Monday evening Captain and Mrs. Henry Lyon entertained for Mr. and Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Schaefer, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hays and Mr. Bliss.
